Marissa R. Farrow

Greetings,

I pray this missive finds you at peace and enjoying the blessings of our God. I am Marissa R. Farrow and it is a pleasure to introduce myself to you. Since the age of 14, I have been traveling the country preaching the unadulterated gospel of Jesus Christ. My Evangelistic motivation has been birthed from two fundamental biblical scriptures that challenge us as Christians to be avidly committed to the salvation of souls. 1) Being "The Great Commission" found in Matthew 28:19. 2) Being "The Ministry of Reconciliation" given to us in 2 Corinthians 5:11-21. These scriptural charges have guided me from my childhood, into my adult years. It is my aim and my goal to take the name of Jesus to the world unashamedly. For this is the call and cause of Christ. Souls Matter and it's our job to live in a way that causes people to want to know who He is. As a preacher, Teacher, Inspirational Speaker, Author, Conference Host, and Woman it is my aim to please God in all I do.

Yours in Christ and, Creation

Marissa R. Farrow

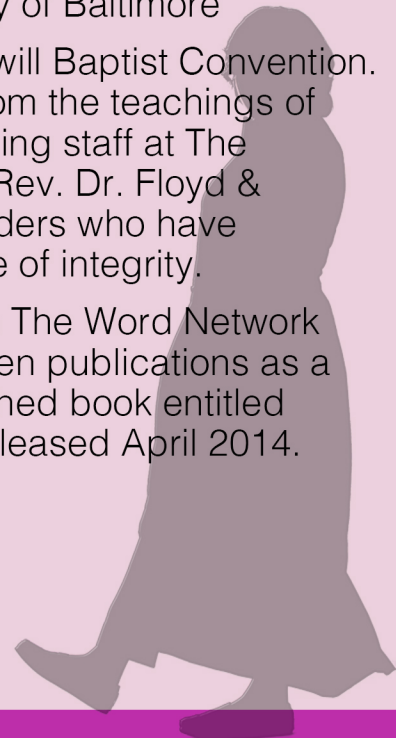

Biography

Rev. Marissa R. Farrow, a Native of Baltimore MD, was born on June 19, 1989 to Bishop Robert E. Farrow and Evangelist Jacqueline Farrow, Pastors of Mt. Calvary Church & Ministries, where Marissa had her beginnings in ministry. Marissa attributes her ministerial beginnings to one "Good Friday Morning" when asked by her father to stand in for a pastor who was unable to make their annual Seven Last Words service. It was from that moment that at the age of 14, Marissa found herself stepping out of the backgrounds of ministry, to the forefront when she began speaking for diverse occasions in the city of Baltimore

In August of 2013, she was ordained as an Elder in the Northeast Freewill Baptist Convention. Marissa has been privileged to sit under great leadership and glean from the teachings of her father, Bishop Robert E. Farrow, and currently serves on the preaching staff at The Greater Allen Cathedral of New York, under the Pastoral leadership of Rev. Dr. Floyd & Elaine Flake and she attributes much gratitude to many other great leaders who have impacted her preaching ministry and her personal pursuit of living a life of integrity.

She has been blessed to minister on "Churchin On The Word" live from The Word Network Studios in Detroit, Michigan and has also been featured in various written publications as a young leader in the church. Marissa's most recent joy is her first published book entitled "Delivered From Dysfunction A Seven Step Guide To A Better You!" Released April 2014.
